Location:

The old town of Palma, also known as the "Casco Antiguo", is the heart of the capital of Mallorca and a fascinating labyrinth of narrow streets, squares and historic buildings. Amidst this ancient backdrop rises the imposing cathedral of Palma, "La Seu", with its striking Gothic architecture that dominates the skyline. In addition to the cathedral, the old town also includes impressive remains of old city walls and city gates that once protected the city, as well as the majestic royal palace, "Palau de l'Almudaina".

The atmosphere of the city is vibrant and lively, characterized by a rich cultural diversity and a lively hustle and bustle. There is an abundance of stores, from traditional craft businesses to modern boutiques, as well as a variety of restaurants, bars and cafés that fill the streets and squares with life. The old town is also a cultural center with numerous museums, galleries and historical sites that offer insights into Mallorca's rich history and culture.
